

“Unity in Diversity”

Casual and Informal evening for Catholic Adults of all ages (and their friends). Learn what the Church offers to help us live happier, more spiritually fulfilled lives. Enjoy a chance to share faith in a comfortable atmosphere!

The Catholic parishes of Western Maryland are proud to announce presentations on Jewish, Islamic, and Lutheran faith traditions. Although different faith traditions, these presentations will illuminate the points of unity and similitude to the Catholic faith. Join us in building bridges of peace and understanding between our faith traditions!

Thursday, March 5th— Dr. Shakil M. Rahman

Dr. Shakil will talk about the background and history of the Muslim faith. He will discuss the Koran and what the similarities are to our Bible.

Thursday, March 12th— Rabbi Sniderman

Rabbi Sniderman will discuss the background and history of the Jewish faith. He will explain the Seder meal and what the similarities are to the Last Supper

Thursday, March 19th—Pastor Chuck Erzkus

Pastor Erzkus will give a background and history of the Lutheran faith. He will talk about the Lutheran service and the Eucharist and what the similarities are to our Mass and Eucharist.

GUISEPPE'S RESTAURANT
(upstairs room)
11 Bowery Street
Frostburg, MD

Come early if you want to eat before the presentation, or just eat while we talk.

We will include time for questions and discussion. You may come and have dinner or just order dessert and coffee (or nothing at all). The Special Food and Faith menu lists a fine variety of items in a wide range of prices. PLEASE call or email to reserve your space by noon on Monday, March 4th.

7:00 p.m.—

Gathering, Prayer & Introductions.

Come, order a drink and meet other Catholic adults there to learn about and share our faith

7:30—9:00 p.m. —

Presentation & Discussion

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER AND RESERVE YOUR PLACE, CONTACT:

St. Michael's Church

44 E. Main Street

Frostburg, MD 21532; Phone 301-689-6767

Or E-mail Monica Beck at
Our Lady of the Mountains
Parish: mbeck@archbalt.org